REISSUE APPLICATION DECLARATION BY THE INVENTOR

Docket Number (Optional)
109536-117

As a below named inventor, I hereby declare that:

My residence, mailing address and citizenship are stated below next to my name.

I believe I am the original, first and sole inventor (if only one name is listed below) or an original, first and joint inventor (if plural names are listed below) of the subject matter which is described and claimed in patent number 5,945,420, granted August 31, 1999, and for which a reissue patent is sought on the invention entitled IMMUNOPOTENTIATING AND INFECTION

PROTECTIVE AGENT AND PRODUCTION THEREOF
the specification of which

☒ is attached hereto.

☐ was filed on _____ as reissue application number _____ / _____
and was amended on _____
(If applicable)

I have reviewed and understand the contents of the above identified specification, including the claims, as amended by any amendment referred to above.

I acknowledge the duty to disclose information which is material to patentability as defined in 37 CFR 1.56.

I verily believe the original patent to be wholly or partly inoperative or invalid, for the reasons described below. (Check all boxes that apply.)

☐ by reason of a defective specification or drawing.

☒ by reason of the patentee claiming more or less than he had the right to claim in the patent.

☐ by reason of other errors.

At least one error upon which reissue is based is described below. If the reissue is a broadening reissue, such must be stated with an explanation as to the nature of the broadening:

For example, one error upon which the reissue application is based is the omission of claims to a method for treating infection by administering to a patient in need of such treatment a composition comprising riboflavin and/or riboflavin derivative. Another example of an error upon which the reissue application is based is the omission of claims to a method of treating a patient with an infection comprising administering a composition comprising riboflavin and/or riboflavin derivative in an amount sufficient to enhance the immune function of the patient. Yet still another example of an error upon which the reissue application is based is the omission of claims to a method of enhancing the immune response of a patient with an infection by administering to the patient a composition comprising riboflavin and/or riboflavin derivative. A further example of an error upon which the reissue application is based is the omission of claims to a method for treating a patient with sepsis by administering to such a patient a sufficient amount of a composition comprising riboflavin and/or riboflavin derivative.

Under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number.

(REISSUE APPLICATION DECLARATION BY THE INVENTOR, page 2)

Docket Number (Optional)
109536-161

All errors corrected in this reissue application arose without any deceptive intention on the part of the applicant. As a named inventor, I hereby appoint the following attorney(s) and/or agent(s) to prosecute this application and transact all business in the United States Patent and Trademark Office connected therewith.

ORIGINALLY FILED

As a below named inventor, I hereby declare that:

My residence, mailing address and citizenship are stated below next to my name.

I believe I am the original, first and sole inventor (if only one name is listed below) or an original, first and joint inventor (if plural names are listed below) of the subject matter which is described and claimed in patent number 5,945,420, granted August 31, 1999, and for which a reissue patent is sought on the invention entitled IMMUNOPOTENTIATING AND INFECTION

PROTECTIVE AGENT AND PRODUCTION THEREOF

the specification of which

☒ is attached hereto.

☐ was filed on _____ as reissue application number _____ / _____
and was amended on _____
(If applicable)

I have reviewed and understand the contents of the above identified specification, including the claims, as amended by any amendment referred to above.

I acknowledge the duty to disclose information which is material to patentability as defined in 37 CFR 1.56.

I verily believe the original patent to be wholly or partly inoperative or invalid, for the reasons described below. (Check all boxes that apply.)

☐ by reason of a defective specification or drawing.

☒ by reason of the patentee claiming more or less than he had the right to claim in the patent.

☐ by reason of other errors.

At least one error upon which reissue is based is described below. If the reissue is a broadening reissue, such must be stated with an explanation as to the nature of the broadening:

For example, one error upon which the reissue application is based is the omission of claims to a method for treating infection by administering to a patient in need of such treatment a composition comprising riboflavin and/or riboflavin derivative. Another example of an error upon which the reissue application is based is the omission of claims to a method of treating a patient with an infection comprising administering a composition comprising riboflavin and/or riboflavin derivative in an amount sufficient to enhance the immune function of the patient. Yet still another example of an error upon which the reissue application is based is the omission of claims to a method of enhancing the immune response of a patient with an infection by administering to the patient a composition comprising riboflavin and/or riboflavin derivative. A further example of an error upon which the reissue application is based is the omission of claims to a method for treating a patient with sepsis by administering to such a patient a sufficient amount of a composition comprising riboflavin and/or riboflavin derivative.
